

International students interested in attending Morningside College should consult the current catalog and the Office of Admissions for admission requirements. In addition, if an international student is interested in participating in intercollegiate athletics, he/she should contact the Athletic Department and/or the head coach for eligibility requirements. Beginning with the 2011 Fall Semester, all new student athletes will need to submit information to the NAIA Eligibility Center to be processed and certified.

All international students seeking admission and/or athletic eligibility must submit the information listed below.

FIRST YEAR STUDENTS:

1. Final, official high school transcript in original language
2. Official, certified English translation of the final high school transcript. The translation should include conversion of grades into U.S. grade equivalencies on a 4.0 scale.
3. Proof of high school graduation

TRANSFER STUDENTS:

1. Final, official high school and all college transcripts in original language
2. Official, certified English translation of all final transcripts (high school and college). The translation should include conversion of all grades into U.S. grade equivalencies on a 4.0 scale. The translation of the college(s) transcript(s) should include conversion into U.S. credit equivalencies (semester hours), broken down by semesters.
3. Proof of high school graduation
4. Verification that each college attended is accredited

All of the above information must be provided by the student. All costs incurred must be paid by the student.

This listing is provided for the convenience of the student. There may be other transcript evaluation agencies you may choose to contact. However, Morningside College will accept evaluations only from agencies that are current members of the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES)
